The National Cattle Congress is seeking young ladies to compete in the 2018 National Cattle Congress Fair Queen Competition at the historic Electric Park Ballroom in Waterloo Iowa, on Sunday, June 10th, 2018. Queen Applicants must reside in Black Hawk, Benton, Bremer, Buchanan, Butler, Grundy or Tama counties to be eligible to compete. Each contestant must be at least 16 years of age on or before August 7th, 2002 and no older than 21 years old on or before August 7th 2018. We are looking for contestants that are involve in school, community and/or church activities, such as 4-H, FFA, Girl Scouts, Church groups, Musical Groups, School Sports, etc. A full list of rules and regulations is available at www.nationalcattlecongress.com and or may be emailed or mailed to Queen Applicants.

The crowned 2018 National Cattle Congress Queen will be eligible to compete at the Iowa State Fair Queen Competition in Des Moines, August 7th-11th 2018. This is an opportunity of a lifetime, where you will meet lifelong friends, compete at a state level, build life skills and make memories that you will always cherish. There are 6 Scholarship Prizes handed out at the Iowa State Fair Queen competition, with opportunities to win savings bonds scholarships and gift cards.

Queen contestants will be judged on a variety of attributes including personality, attitude, appearance and awareness. The contestants will also be judged by their leadership and citizenship that they contribute to their communities as well as charm, poise and overall appearance. Iowa State Fair Queen competition focuses less on pageantry more on the personality and the community involvement of its Queen Contestants.

This Year the National Cattle Congress will be celebrating its 108th Fair, September 13th-16th of 2018. The queen will be required to be at the fair all 4 days to do various appearances and duties. In addition to competing at the Iowa State Fair Queen Competition and fulfilling the National Cattle Congress Fair duties and appearances, the queen will appear at local and regional town celebrations, fairs and parades.
